Privacy Protection information

bnext collects Personal Information about you bnext collects personal information about you as specified in this application form, and may also collect personal information about you from a credit reporting agency in order to assess your application for credit and any insurance applied for. bnext may also use that information in order to tell you about other products and services offered.

Disclosure of Personal Information we collect bnext discloses information collected about you where required to do so under applicable laws, such as taxation and government benefit laws and under cash transaction reporting laws. bnext also discloses information about you to credit reporting agencies (to the extent specified below) and mortgage insurers where applicable. bnext also may engage third party service providers to assist in the provision of products and services to you, and in those circumstances your personal information may be disclosed in confidence. bnext participates in industry sponsored schemes, such as VISA, and may disclose your personal information to other participants in that scheme. Where you have applied for an insurance product as listed on this application bnext discloses the personal information collected from you on the insurance proposal to the insurer specified. Where you request an insurance quote or a referral to a car buying service, your personal details will be disclosed to enable the quote to be given and/or the referral made.

Access to Personal Information we collect

You are entitled to access the personal information that bnext holds about you, except in some limited circumstances outlined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the "Act"). You can request access by writing to bnext.

What happens if you do not give us the information required

If you do not provide bnext with the personal information requested, then bnext may be unable to process your application for credit or insurance as the case may be.

National Privacy Principles

bnext has adopted and abides by the National Privacy Principles and bnext Code of Practice. bnext has developed a Privacy Policy which is available on request.

Giving information to a credit reporting agency

You acknowledge that bnext may give certain personal information about you to a credit reporting agency. You acknowledge that you understand that bnext can only give limited kinds of information to a credit reporting agency as set out in the Act, examples of which are:

- identity particulars – this only includes your name, sex, date of birth, current known address, two immediately previous addresses, your current or last known employer, and your driver's licence number;
- the fact that you have applied for credit and the amount;

- the fact that bnext is currently a credit provider to you;
- details of credit provided by bnext where payments are overdue for at least 60 days, and bnext has taken steps to recover all or some of the amounts outstanding;
- advice that payments are no longer overdue;
- cheques for an amount greater than $100, drawn by you which have been dishonoured more than once;
- our opinion that you have committed a serious credit infringement;
- when the credit provided to you has been discharged

Exchanging information with other credit providers

You agree that bnext may exchange and check personal information about you with any other credit provider named in your credit application, and with other credit providers that may be named in a credit report issued by a credit reporting agency, for any of the following purposes:

- to assess your credit worthiness;
- to assess an application by you for credit;
- to help you avoid defaulting on your credit obligations;
- to notify a default by you;
- the collection of overdue payments.

You acknowledge and understand that this information can include any information about your credit worthiness, credit standing, credit history or credit capacity that credit providers are allowed to give to or receive from each other under the Act.

You agree that this information can be provided to any persons or bodies involved in funding the credit you are applying for by means of a securitisation arrangement in order to enable those persons or bodies to perform tasks which are necessary to fund the credit you are applying for (section 18N (1)(b) Privacy Act 1988).

Access to Commercial Credit* Information

For the purpose of assessing your application for credit, you consent to bnext obtaining a report containing information about your commercial activities or commercial credit worthiness, from a business which provides information about the commercial credit worthiness of persons.

Access to Consumer Credit Information for a Commercial Credit* application

If your application is for commercial credit, you consent to bnext obtaining from a credit reporting agency a credit report about you containing consumer credit information in order to assess your application for credit. (*as defined in the Act).

Please return completed application to bnext, GPO Box 1801 Melbourne, Vic 3001, your nearest Service Centre or online at bnext.com.au
